APRIL 17 - APRIL 26

Published every Thursday during the academic year, except for holidays and vacations, by the Office of Development and Public Relations. Deadline for all copy is Tuesday noontime. News of general interest to the college community is earnestly requested so that Happenings can be a comprehensive preview of what's new and what's coming on campus.

KUDOS

Mr. William Hobson, Inspector, Cumberland Police Department, and Salve Regina College Cumberland Area Coordinator for the Law Enforcement Degree Program, has been chosen as "Man of the Year" by the Rhode Island Junior Chamber of Commerce.

About 30 members of the class of 1964 attended the dedication ceremony for two framed color photographs of Newport shot by Diana LaCazette '69 and given by the New York-New Jersey Alumnae Club in memory of the late Virginia Del Bello '64. Sister Mary Christopher, Salve Regina president, spoke briefly at the ceremony, and Marcella Del Bello '63, Virginia's sister, placed the commemorative plaque under the pictures in the lounge at the O'Hare Academic Center. Also on hand for the afternoon dedication were Virginia's parents, two brothers, grandmother and uncle. A luncheon in Ochre Court and a student-conducted tour of the campus preceded the dedication ceremony. President of the New York-New Jersey Alumnae Club is Peggy Burns Fried '64.

THERE

Sister M. Audrey, dean of admissions, and Sister Ralph Mary, admissions recruiter, along with admissions officers from 39 other Catholic colleges for women, spent two days at Boston's Lenox Motor Hotel conducting personal interviews with secondary school students and their parents.

Rev. Richard Mandeville of the department of theology attended a seminar on the communications media at WJAR-TV in Providence. The seminar was conducted by the station's radio and TV production staff and the Rev. Donald Connelly of the New York City office of the Catholic Office for Communications Media.

As part of their study of art of the Renaissance, the members of the history of art class will spend Friday, April 17, at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

Dr. Ascanio DiPippo, chairman of the chemistry department, spoke on "Man and His Environment--the Chemical Aspects" at the Knightville Branch of the Providence Public Library in observance of National Library Week.

Miss Helen R. Holland of the art department accompanied eight students to New York City for a College Weekend sponsored by the Metropolitan Museum of Art.
